

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 26, 1996

SUBJECT: HB 2672 - SB 2953

This bill, if enacted, will prohibit a driver and passenger from possessing an open container of any alcoholic beverage.

The fiscal impact of this bill is estimated to increase state revenues from increased fines for violations of the open container law. The amount of additional revenue cannot be determined but is estimated to be less than $100,000.

The fiscal impact of this bill is also estimated to increase local government revenues from increased fines. The amount of additional revenue cannot be determined but is estimated to be less than $100,000.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director